"THE SCIENCE OF MATERIA MEDICA : WHEN THE RIGHT REMEDY MEETS THE RIGHT CASE"

Dr. Radhakrishnan Nair

Dr. M. Radhakrishnan Nair, an esteemed alumnus of Athurashramam NSS Homoeopathic Medical College, Kurichi, Kottayam, and a proud native of Nileshwar, Kasaragod, stands as a senior and highly regarded figure in the world of Homoeopathy. A visionary leader, Dr. Radhakrishnan served as the General Secretary of the College Union, where his exemplary leadership skills shone through.

As an outstanding student, he earned the prestigious Sankar Memorial Prize in the 1998 Inter-Collegiate IHK Similiafest Competition for Elocution on Materia Medica, setting him apart for his oratory excellence. His passion for advancing Homoeopathy led him to become a valued member of the drug-proving team of the Central Council for Homoeopathic Research.

Known across the state as one of the most sought-after speakers in the realm of Homoeopathic Paediatrics, his contributions to the clinical interpretation of paediatric mind and his unparalleled prescription abilities have made a lasting impact.

Dr Radhakrishnan's extraordinary oratory and presentation skills have played a pivotal role in popularizing Homoeopathy, particularly in North Kerala, earning him a reputation as an influential ambassador for the system of medicine.

Beyond his medical expertise, he is deeply committed to community service. He has led numerous cultural organizations and spearheaded palliative care initiatives in his hometown for over two decades, touching countless lives along the way.

He is also a dedicated member of the IHK Kanhangad, further strengthening his ties to the Homoeopathic community.

Dr. Radhakrishnan Nair's unwavering dedication to his profession continues to inspire those around him.
